

Megan Kinneman on Dynasty Goalkeeping Gloves:

“One session at Dynasty Camp, Tracy brought out a few pairs of the Dynasty gloves for us to sample. I immediately loved the snug fit of the glove. I ended up wearing the gloves the rest of the week at camp and then convinced my college team (LSU) to provide me with Dynasty gloves. I honestly feel that my handling has improved since wearing the Dynasty gloves because I can actually feel the ball touch my fingertips. I have experimented with other brands of gloves, but see no comparison to the women’s fit of the Dynasty glove. I cannot imagine going back to wearing the large oven mitts found elsewhere on the market!”
